Being Proactive

This month we are focusing on Habit 1- Being Proactive! Habit 1 is all about being responsible. Being responsible for your own behavior, the words you choose, and your actions. We will make mistakes. We will do things we wish we hadn't. The heart of this habit is deciding the kind of person you want to be known as and matching your behavior, words, and actions to match those principles.

Parents Faculty Student Organization

Staff and Families may donate or join our PFSO this year, one form per family, meaning each family only needs to pay $10 for all children here. 100% of donations go back to the school and students. PFSO helped pay for many things last year, including buses for Cedar Point, Field Trip fees, items for 8th grade graduation, celebrations, and more. The more we collect, the more we can do! Contact Ms. Nawal Sailani for more information.

Newsletter Club

We are looking for students who would like to be part of the school newsletter. Their responsibility will be writing one piece about any topic once a month. It can be about sports, current events, artwork or even recipes. If you are interested, please email Ms. Maha or stop by room 307.

LAHC is starting their 6-week Healthy Living program with our elementary students! Students examined nutrition labels and taste-tested fruit water.

This Is My Hijab by Sara Alduais

Sara Alduais is a 19-year-old Muslim Yemeni-American self-published author. Her latest book, This is My Hijab, tells the story of a little girl named Maysa. Sara's book release was hosted at Salina Intermediate. She was able to connect and discuss her new book with many girls from the community. All attendees had a chance to write their own story. Check out the book and enter Maysa's world as she takes you on her journey with the hijab! Available for purchase on Amazon.

Salina Reviews

"This inclusive and reflective picture book is an outstanding story about identity, visibility, confidence, and being proud and unapologetic of faith." - Ms. Eman Ahmed, Principal

"Such a sweet story! The simplicity in the way the story is presented makes the concept of the hijab easy to understand for both Muslim and non Muslim readers. As a teacher and mother, I definitely think this is a must read. Stories like these help to reinforce and build cross-cultural connections when we understand, at an early age, what it really means to wear hijab. It can be difficult for children growing up and feeling different from others. This story helps to explain the "Why" in a jovial, lighthearted way." - Mrs. Abdullah, 5th Grade Teacher.

Wildcats in Action

4th and 5th grade students take a visit to the apple orchard! Students did some apple tasting, apple picking, as well as complementary donuts and cider.

Students in Mrs. Riehl's class are getting creative! Filling our hallways with the sweet scent of apple crisp.
